

WHERE TO HIKE IN & AROUND HERMANUS

Tel: +27(0)28 312 2629
hermanustourism@hermanus.co.za
www.hermanustourism.info

CLIFF PATH

Walk from Hermanus New Harbour along the coast to Grotto Beach where you can have refreshments at Dutchies and get a lift back with one of our many transport service providers. Whale watching from June to November.

ONRUS

Hike to or from the Milkwood Restaurant at Onrus Beach along a path. Easy walking with 2 tidal pools to swim. Coffee kiosk at Onrus Caravan Park.

FERNKLOOF NATURE RESERVE

60km of linked paths for hiking enthusiasts. The various trails offer magnificent views of Walker Bay, the Hemel en Aarde Valley and Maanskynbaai.
www.fernkloof.org.za

BOUCHARD FINLAYSON

Three guided hikes through Hemel-en-Aarde vineyards. Varying in length from 45 minutes to 2.5 hrs.
Mon - Sat: 9am
www.bouchardfinlayson.co.za

GROTTO BEACH

Grotto Beach to Sopiesklip is a 16 km there and back route on a sandy beach. Mind the tide!

BOSMANS HERMANUS

Bosmans Hermanus has 2 routes on their Hemel-en-Aarde winery property that is just past De Bos Dam. A Wetlands (7km) and Koppie (2km) trail.

Tue - Sat: 9am, Sun: 10am
www.bosmanhermanus.com

THREE DAMS

Start the hike from Fernkloof visitors centre, or for a shorter 30 min hike at the end of Reservoir Road - just off the Voelklip Circle. Enjoy a swim and picnic.

HOY'S KOPPIE

A rocky outcrop in the middle of Hermanus, offering splendid views and is burial place of Sir William Hoy and his wife Gertrude. Archaeologists have found evidence that indigenous Khosian people inhabited Klipgat Cave on the southern side of the hill.