HEMEL-EN-AARDE

Cool climate fine wine country that offers an alternative route to Caledon via the R320. Taste wine or have a more adventurous experience by taking a tour of the valley on horseback or opt for an adrenaline pumped afternoon of paint ball wars or zip-line tours at SA Forest Adventures. There are restaurants at a number of the wineries, walking routes on Bouchard Finlayson and Bosman. Hermanus Wine Hoppers can take you from one farm to another safari style.

WHALES

Although the Southern Right Whale is most common to Hermanus, there are also the Bryde's and Humpback Whales. Southern Right Whales can be seen from June to November.

WINES

Benguela Cove at the entrance to Hermanus is the first wine stop. Move on to Hermanus where a wine route is situated on one road. Starting at the Wine Village where wines can be bought and couriered home. In Hermanus CBD the Wine Glass offers a tasting of all regional wines. Buy wines here or at the Wine & Company.

FERNKLOOF

Fernkloof Nature Reserve is a hikers' paradise. Situated close to the Hermanus Golf Club it offers a network of 60kms of hiking routes against the fynbos clad Klein River Mountains with views looking over Walker Bay. There's a hiking route for everyone regardless of fitness levels or time available to hike. Even if you spend a half hour walking here you will feel the positive impact of nature. The botanical gardens at the entrance of Fernkloof has laws, gardens, walkways and a wheelchair friendly path. There is also a fynbos nursery.

ADVENTURE ACTIVITIES

Bay cruises, coastal flights, guided abalone tours, hiking, horse trail, kayaking, kite-surfing, mountain biking, paragliding, fishing, scuba diving, shark cage diving & snorkelling, surfing, whale walk tours, zipline.

MOUNTAIN BIKING
