9:30 – 11:30 Historical Walking Tour of Stanford (2hours) Guided or self-guided

Stanford is very proud of its Cape Victorian and Edwardian architectural heritage. The pristine Market Square dates back to 1785 while the original farmhouse is one of the oldest houses in the Overberg. The village exudes a charm of yester-year, and the central core of Stanford was awarded heritage status in 1995.

The Stanford Conservation Trust has printed a booklet which enables people to guide themselves around Stanford, reading about the numbered heritage buildings. Cost R10 each which includes the paper booklet of the Walking Tour route and information on each building.
